At White River High School, We Consider Education More Than Reading, Writing and Arithmetic.....the Broader Conception of School Life Helps Today's Youth to Understand Themselves and Society

We, the ever-growing population, are transported by a fleet of buses to and from school and its related activities.

We congregate on the school steps, enjoy belonging to groups of friends, and we accept our school responsibilities.

We learn to cook, bake and sew, and to care for the sick — thus to fit more helpfully into life after school years.

We meet our friends, discuss our affairs, borrow our books at convenient rendezvous our lockers.

We join our friends in discussions of school life, broaden our horizons, often mold life plans.

We study for exams, find new adventures in books, form good reading habits, and discover new fields of endeavor.

We learn to work with nature, superseding the farming methods of our forefathers with today's modern implements and scientific knowledge.

We play hard, make the team . . . we yell hard, give loyal support.

1951 T'Kopechuck Keeps Abreast of the Times..... Presents New Ideas in Yearbook Production

With this 1951 T'Kopechuck came new ideas, new plans and new policies. The staff has tried to bring together in this edition many of the latest ideas and improvements for better yearbooks.

It is our belief that a school yearbook should record the events of the year accurately and attractively. As many individuals, clubs, and groups as possible should be described and pictured, for an annual belongs to you, the students.

Printing and photographic advances have necessitated changes. In keeping with a definite trend in better yearbooks throughout the nation, this book has a photograph printed cover, reproduced on a special fabric over which is screened a fine coat of preservative lacquer. An extra heavy weight of paper has been used for this edition. The paper was put through a process called pebbling to bring forth better photographic reproduction. Advances in art also brought about changes in the 1951 T'Kopechuck. Full page pictures are used to depict school life other than the usual classroom studies. Eight pages of these photographs are in two colors. More full page photographs preceded by smaller pictures arranged in three arrows are used to separate the different sections of the book, such as clubs, classes, and sports, and to provide a mental image of the material placed in the coming section. Over 9,000 pictures were especially posed and photographed, edited and enlarged for this yearbook.

To you, our classmates, we present this yearbook as a record of 1950-51. It is your treasure. We are also proud to present this yearbook as a permanent testimonial to the efforts of our staffs and advisors.

The year 1950-51 was lived as a year rich in experience, adventure, and memory, these we have assembled to give a clear picture of your work and play . . . THE YEAR 1950-51 IN SCHOOL!

Annual Staff Chose School Life for '51 T'Kopechuck

The photographers, Don Farnam and Gordon Malidore, and the staff, have worked for an outstanding yearbook pictorially. The trend in modern yearbooks is to have as many organizations as possible pictured. The annual class at Enumclaw planned the layout for each page and posed each photograph to fit the layout.

Since the yearbook was the only permanent record of the school year a particular interest was made in seeing that each person was photographed at least once.

A cross section of school life from studies to relaxation was shown in the View Section at the front of the book to personify a typical day at WRHS.

In keeping with today's informal living, the book has an informal atmosphere to make for easy reading.

Audrey Cannon and Alex Zaffee returned to school after soliciting ads.

Approvingly watching the photographer take pictures were Joyce Parlari, Buckley editor, and Mr. Bernard, adviser.

Sandra Yotsko and Shirley Horsman wracked their brains writing suitable captions for the annual.

Searching for an annual page layout, Joyce Montgomery and Jean Lochridge thumbed through yearbooks of other schools.

Scheduling pictures for the week were Lynn Anderson, Charlene Donati, and Bill Secor.

Board of Control Showed Results of School Spirit, Hard Work and Purposeful Planning

The Board of Control consisted of the class presidents, club presidents, and the S. B. A. officers with the principals, Mr. Bunt and Mr. Olene, acting advisors. Upon their shoulders rested the difficulties of busy school life. Some of the regular business for discussion was: the purchase of an ice cream machine for the cafeteria at Enumclaw, which the Board of Control decided to buy; tennis letters and stripes; deciding what class or organization had permission to sell confections at games, and determining nominations for next year's S. B. A. officers.

In the past years, the speakers at the graduation exercises were the five students having the highest scholastic rating. Instigated this year was a new plan having the Valedictorian and Salutatorian as speakers with the faculty and senior class electing a speaker.

This year the Student Government decided that each class and organization were to present a pep skit before the student body. They were judged on originality, pep or spirit created, and appropriateness.

Buckley S. B. A. Officers, Larry Renner, President; Joan Demko, Secretary-Treasurer and Lynn Anderson, Vice-President; waited for a pep assembly in the auditorium.

Enumclaw and Buckley S. B. A. officers were seen during an important discussion in Mr. Bunt's office: Joan Demko, Jim Gard, Dick York, Jim Galimanis, Janet Warren, Lynn Anderson, Larry Renner.

Enumclaw B. of C. members discussed the Christmas programs; Bob Poutt, Dorothy Lokovsek, Gene Balint, Barbara Silvestri, Marilyn Holmes, Gary Sambila, Pyhlis Holmes, Joan Hanson, and Barbara Hansen.

F. F. A. Advisor, Mr. Smith, explained business that was to be discussed at the next meeting to officers, Fred Stolz, Martin Holdener, Val Krainick, Fred Krainick, and Paul Harleman.

All Parliament procedure contests were started by the salute to the flag. Starting a practice session were: First Row: Fred Krainick, Ted Harleman, Frederick Krainick, Fred Stolz. Second Row: Mr. Smith, M. Holdener, V. Krainick, J. Craig, D. Boushey.

The past year has been well spent by the Buckley F. F. A. The members made good use of their time, their parliamentary procedure, and their knowledge of farming.

Two weeks before school bells rang, the F. F. A. judging team composed of Mickey Kosko, Bob Britschgi, Larry Bagnall, Ronald DeMuyne, and Richard Ranch had already competed at Chehalis where they placed eighth among 35 teams. The boys also competed in contests at Monroe, Puyallup, Portland, and Carnation Farms.

Another group of Future Farmers went to K. J. R. where they put on a radio program on parliamentary procedure.

All members took part in the annual Parent-Son Banquet held on March 19th.

At the Western Washington State Fair, the F. F. A. received a red award for its display of fruits and vegetables.

Among their other activities the group has kept up a school farm plot. Don Brewer was in charge of the projects this year, and corn, cucumbers, grass and legumes were grown.

Jim French, Duane Bell and Richard Ranch proved their skill in the Agricultural shop at Buckley.

Discussing their future as farmers were Richard Ranch, Andy Dieringer, Gene Maris, Jim French and Don Brewer.

At an F. F. A. "Spray Party", Clyde Nelson, "Gunner" Rhodes, Bob Britschgi, Larry Bagnall, and Dale Smith kept the insects down.

The officers and advisor, Mrs. Hayes, chose Vonda Stanhope, Jeanine Kennedy, Sandra Carlson, Billie Greenfield and Florine Bagby to represent Enumclaw at the regional conference at Bellingham on March 23 and 24. These girls brought home many interesting ideas and plans on how to make a better club.

To acquire practice in cooking and serving food the F. H. A. girls prepared and served the teachers' banquet.

The FHA Cabinet, C. Colvin, K. Hearn, J. Barkley, D. Rogers, E. Sonntag and M. Holmes enjoyed watching tennis turnout from the home economics room window.

Marcia Casper, Mary Lokovsek, Pauline Carlson, Clara Van Hoof, Barbara Derby, Jeanette Lane, and Betty Margarini were seen on their way to the Hospital to sing Christmas carols.

Down Went the Hammer Round Went the Reels

In the paps crew room checking the recorder were Fred Duncan, Niles Thim, Mr. Campbell, club advisor, and James Mills.

Eager to learn more about movie cameras were Len Signani, Don Goodale, Bob Barner and Melvin Flinkman.

Terry Carlson, Ken Kirkland and Jack Hoirup often adjusted the projector for a noon movie.

Public Address and Projection System stands for the word Paps. This organization trained students for sports announcers and public address operators. It provided the school with recording apparatus, operators, noon and classroom movies, and worked in association with the stage crew, to make the plays and assemblies a success.

Stage Crew jobs varied from driving nails to changing the cyclorama. These people were handy with tools and ideas, so they built most of the scenery and props for the plays and other productions.

Getting the stage set in a hurry for the next scene were Joyanne Martin, Larry Renner, Barbara Rinell, and Glen Osterdahl.

Reporters Hustled to Meet the Ever-Challenging Deadline

Second Row: David Clogston, Wayne Mahyle, Elsie McGehee, JoAnne Emerson, Clyde Nelson, Warren Swift, Don Romberg, Charles Koch.

The staffs at both branches of White River High School diligently worked this year to turn out the two school papers.

It was impossible to continue printing "The Hornet", a combination of Enumclaw and Buckley news due to a lack of school funds.

"The Hi-Mercury", the newspaper at White River's Enumclaw branch was published in the form of a six-page mimeographed paper bi-weekly.

The Buckley branch newspaper, "The Bucklonian", was printed weekly as a part of the local newspaper, the "Buckley Banner."

Connie Colvin, Hi-Merc Editor, was snapped in the cooking room obtaining F. H. A. news.

Colleen McCracken, Wayne Mahyle and Margie Van Hoof, Bucklonian Editors, worked on the next issue.

Hi-Merc Staff members reporting to the newsroom with their exclusives for the next issue, were standing—Don Landskov, Joyce Dear-den, Dick McGee, Betty Malgarini, Clara Van Hoof, Janet Lou McKinnon, Rich York, Duane Baker, Ken Kirkland. Sitting—Alice Rogers, Kathy Hearn, Connié Colvin, Jan Barkley, Marilyn Holmes.

Letter Winners Wear Them Proudly

Three boys, the "WR" Club officers, who helped bring honors to White River, Jim Gard, Gary Sambila and F. Krainick found time to take a closer look at the 1950 football trophy.

Letter wearers from Buckley were: Tow Row: Mr. Ross, Ronald Storm, Wes Rainey, Jerry Kuranko, Ed Wilson. Seated: Bunker, Jim French.

The Letterman's Club consisted of any senior high boy who earned a letter by participating in any sport.

As a means of making money, to support their club, the boys sold maroon and gold pencils with the game schedules on them.

Before becoming an active member, the boys went through a strenuous initiation. During the day, the initiates were forced to dress up and bow when seeing a "Superior" member. As the evening grew near, there were many nervous boys for sometimes the night initiation could become very frightening. Later the boys were allowed to relax as they enjoyed refreshments and a movie at the theater.

Buckley "WR" Club Officers, Chuck Koch, Secretary, Jim French, Vice President, and Don French, President, enjoyed watching a fast game of tennis.

Royalty Reigned Over WRHS Homecoming

White River's first Homecoming celebration was held November 10. The celebration consisted of assemblies at both school branches, at which each club and class presented a spirited and peppy skit . . . a football game with Auburn, and a Coronation Ball.

The candidates for the King and Queen at Enumclaw, nominated by the Junior and Senior High Girls' and Boys' Clubs were: Queen: Phyllis Parsons, Marilyn Holmes, Janet Warren, Jackie Ellingson and Dorothy Nelson; Ina Thieman, Audrey Cannon, and Colleen McCracken of the Buckley Branch of White River. King: Jim Galimanis, Jack Henry, Ivan Hickenbottom, and Gary Sambila of Enumclaw; Chuck Koch, Don French, and Don Romberg of Buckley.

Paul McCurdy, Glen Rupert, and Bill Makken, members of the faculty from Auburn High School acted as judges. Chosen to reign over the Homecoming celebration were Jim Galimanis and Dorothy Nelson of Enumclaw and Ina Thieman and Don Romberg of the Buckley Branch of White River.

The centerpiece, a sparkling silver fountain, glistened under the pale blue lights.

Co-chairman Alice Ghiglione and Marilyn Holmes with their escorts listened to the "The Three J's" sing during the intermission.

1951 Social Season Climaxed by "Silver Dreamland"

With Silver Dreamland as its theme, the Senior Ball was a virtual "dreamland" set to the music of Norm Hoagy and his band.

The decorations were enchanting. The gym was transformed into a beautiful winter scene and a fantasy of evening clothes, where the night was danced away in sheer contentment.

The intermission was high-lighted with Ivan Hickenbottom who sang "Frostie the Snowman", and by a girls' trio who sang several selections. Janet Warren acted as Mistress of Ceremonies during the program. Co-chairmen of the dance were Alice Ghiglione and Marilyn Holmes.

Under a star-studded bandstand, Norm Hoagy furnished the music for this dance.

During intermission Dona Robison and her date Dick Hunter, enjoyed the punch which was served.

Informality Set Note for Tolo in Cotton and Jeans

King and Queen of the Potatoe Dance, Jack Boere and Dorothy Lokovsek demonstrated "just how it was done."

Resting for a while on a bale of hay, Ivan Hickenbottom and Marian Beech paused to watch "The Mexican Shuffle".

Barbara Hansen, Jim Galimanis, Bob Dancoisne, Audrey Cannon and many other couples were caught by the photographer enjoying the intermission entertainment.

Dave Williams and Dean Wesner put in the heaven before dance time.

Heaven Can Wait.....

Juniors Sponsored Dance
Under 'My Blue Heaven'

"Blue Heaven", the theme of the Junior Prom at Buckley held February 9, was carried out by Dean Madden and his committee. The decorations consisted of a ceiling of blue crepe paper hung with silver stars which reflected colors from revolving lights. The sidewalls and bandstand were decorated with alternating strips of twisted crepe paper in two shades of blue.

"Hold it a sec kids!" Lynn Anderson, Yvette Wally and Jean Atemboski oblige.

Couples Fred Arsanto, Charlene Van Hoof, Elaine Borell and Lynn Anderson are having too good a time to think of the photographer.

Turnabout was Fair Play...Buckley Belles Wooed Bashful Boys at Tolo

"Mardi Gras", the Girls' Club Tolo at Buckley, held on March 10, proved to be a gala formal affair.

The many couples danced under a huge pastel striped tent with the bandstand and refreshment booth standouts in smaller tents. Colored balloons, costumed figures on the walls and confetti added to the colorful scene.

At intermission the spotlight was focused on Audrey Cannon crowned "Queen of the Mardi Gras"!

Couples at the "Mardi Gras" included Inez Thieman and Larry Reed, Ina Thieman and Cecil Straley.

A large crowd was present at the Tolo.

Jan Nielson bought her date, Jim French, a coke as couples line up at "Refreshment Time".

FRED WEST, 6 feet 4 inches, 220 pounds of power and speed. While being named All-State Fred led the Puget Sound league scoring.

GENE BALINT, deadly blocking and tackling combined with spirit and outstanding attitude were the direct results of his teammates electing him Inspirational Player for 1950-51.

GARY SAMBILA, desire to play, along with speed and ability, helped Gary rank 3rd in league scoring, attain an All-State berth, and captain of the team.

DICK MCGEE, known throughout the league for his circus catches and brilliant pass receiving, he was given a berth on the All Conference team and was ranked 5th in scoring.

DON ROMBERG, an excellent linebacker with his cool head and good right arm was responsible for many a touchdown, and long gain.

RICH YORK, playing excellent ball at the defensive halfback, Rich made All Conference center. His spirit and attitude was an inspiration to the squad.

JACK HENRY, rugged All Conference tackle played fine ball. His training and spirit were a credit to the team.

JIM SYMONDS, speed and dynamic tackling made him an outstanding lineman. His speed made up for his lack in weight.

BILL MUELLER, swivel hipped halfback of the White River team was without a doubt the squad's outstanding broken field runner.

ARNIE OLSSON, playing guard all season Arnie did a lot with his fine blocking and tackling in the teams' successful season.

JOHN MARIOTTI, even with his lack of weight was known as the teams' fireball on defense as well as offense, while being noted for his shoestring tackles and fine blocking.

VAL KRAINICK, being used on both end and tackle was an outstanding defensive ball player and was always a threat to the opposing team.

Hornet Champs Captured PSL Crown

The Hornets won the strong Puget Sound League Championship, for the first time in fourteen years. The last time being in 1936.

Coaches Ed Stricherz and Bob Campbell carefully laid plans in attacking their opponents, along with conditioning spirit, morale, training and the old desire to play football were big factors in going for the league title.

The teams average weight was 167 lbs. but they supplemented this with speed, spirit, fight and good blocking and tackling.

Four of the first eleven were picked on the First All Conference Team, Fred West, Gary Sambila, Richard York and Jack Henry. Dick McGee made the Second All Conference Team. Fred West and Gary Sambila were also selected to play in the All State Game on August 11.

"This will be the starting lineup," said Head Coach Ed Stricherz to assistant Bob Campbell.

WHITE RIVER 19, BELLINGHAM 6—The first meeting between White River and a Cross State eleven the Hornets won 19-6. The Red Raiders threatened constantly with a strong passing game but the running attack of the Hornets proved to be the margin.

WHITE RIVER 34, SUMNER 14—The Spartans fought hard but the Hornets offense clicked consistently. Both teams made many first downs but the Hornet defense yielded only two touchdowns.

WHITE RIVER 32, KENT 7—The Hornets started fast and rolled over the Royals in impressive style. Sambila, Mueller and West made outstanding runs. The reserves held the Royals on even terms in the later stages.

Members of the "Hornet" championship football team were:

WHITE RIVER 21, CLOVER PARK 0—The Warriors drove 80 yards to the goal line but couldn't score. A stonewall defense and several breath-taking catches by end Dick McGee told the story. It was a great game, better than the score indicates.

WHITE RIVER 14, HIGHLINE 13—The game of the year. Highline blocked a kick and led 13-7 with less than four minutes to go. A great pass by Romberg and a greater catch by McGee put it on the 10. The Hornets scored and Sambila on a brilliant play scored the all-important point.

WHITE RIVER 21, AUBURN 0—The 1950 Homecoming found the Hornets at their best as they scored 21 points in the first twelve minutes against a strong Trojan eleven.

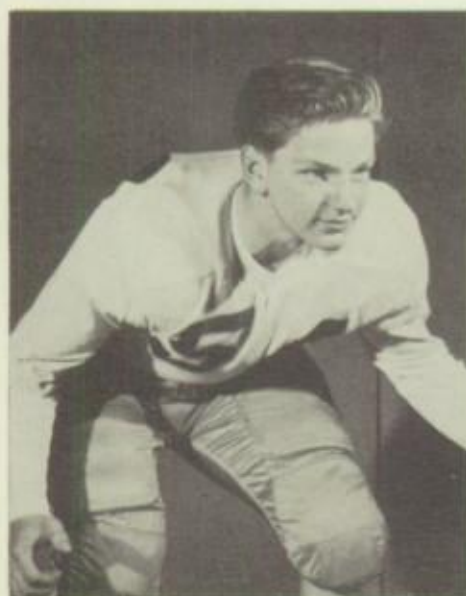

WHITE RIVER 7, PUYALLUP 19—In a sea of mud the Hornets finally tasted defeat. The Vikings, led by Lancaster, played great ball and on all occasions but one, stopped the Hornets cold. Balint and York played brilliant defense games.

WHITE RIVER 27, LAKE WASHINGTON 7—With the P. S. L. championship hanging in the balance, the Hornets rose up to smash the Kangaroos 27-7. The first half was even but the Kangaroos wilted under the fierce tackling and blocking and sharp attack of the Hornets during the final quarters. Sambila and Balint sparked the win.

With a basketball schedule that could be called a "toughie" in any man's language, Coaches Bill Ames and Fred Krueger brought their charges through on the longer side of the win and loss column, making the most successful season in White River history.

Previous varsity letter winners were Fred West, Dick McGee, Arnie Olsson, Fid Lilly, Val Krainick and Bob Dancoise. The boys who made the grade from the '50 second team were Don Koval and Jim Gard while Martin Holdner stepped up from the F. F. A. team and Gary Radliff made the big jump from junior high.

The Hornets won 12 games and lost 8 in 20 starts to finish third in the Puget Sound League

When the curtain rang down in mid-March on the 1951 Casaba sport it found the following fellows appearing in the Maroon and Gold for the last time: Dick McGee, Fred West, Martin Holdner, Arnie Olsson, Mahlon Lilly, and Val Krainick.

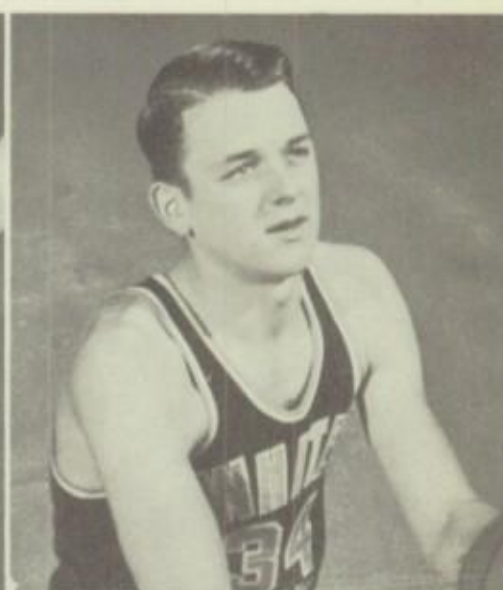

Returning letterman to form the nucleus for next year's team will be All Conference Bob Dancoisne while the second team with their excellent team play and spirit will very aptly fit into the vacancies left by the hustling Seniors whose positions were vacated by graduation.

Track Stars Burned Cinders for WRHS

After having two successful seasons of track, the '51 track squad of White River was out to uphold the record. Although the majority of the squad was quite young the boys seemed to have that desire to get out and win. Returning lettermen were Dick McGee, Fred West, Jack Boere, Bill Mueller, Jim Symonds and Jack Furnish.

Coaches Fred Krueger and Ed Stricherz discussed a possible list of "starters" for the triangular meet with Auburn and Sumner.

Bob Estby, Bill Mueller and Jack Furnish anxiously awaited the results of the "high jump" in the class track meet. All three are one year lettermen in track.

"Big Wheels" of this year's track team were Jack Boere, Dick McGee and Fred West because of two previous years in track competition, earning their stripes as Sophomores and Juniors. During the '51 track season Fred West broke the State shot put record from 52 ft. 7½ in. to 53 ft. 1 in.

In bright uniforms of red and white the Junior High yell squad of Enumclaw, Barbara Johnson, Virginia Love, Shirley Duncan, led the rooters and backed the teams all the way.

Races at Cayuse Climaxed Skiing Season

Happily Monnie Tougaw smiled after winning the advanced girl's race.

Many times Mr. Don Bunt, our principal, traveled with White River's skiers to Cayuse Pass. In the photograph Mr. Bunt carefully clocked the skiers for time in a race.

Grant Heppenstall tried hard to increase his racing speed before reaching the finish line.

"On your mark" — "Get set" — "Go," were the familiar words that started the races and climaxed skiing for the White River Ski Club at Cayuse Pass.

Monnie Tougaw and Jerry Rogers won the advanced races, with honors going to Marcia Casper and Gordon Malidore in the intermediate groups.

For a period of two months the skiers were given instructions every Saturday by Mr. and Mrs. Fopp. Ken Kirkland, Cynthia Stanton, Jack Henry and Bob Barner headed the club as officers.

Happy trophy winners posed with other ski enthusiasts. First Row: trophy winners, M. Casper, M. Tougaw, J. Rogers, G. Malidore. Second Row: J. Symonds, J. Henry, C. Scott, D. Robison, K. Tennis Voted Major Sport

Determination played the main role in making tennis recognized as a major sport. For the first time in the history for both branches of White River High School girls were allowed to wear stripes.

An intensive tournament was held to determine which team members were to compete in league play and the order names should appear on the tennis ladder.

On this year's squad were six returning lettermen and also added varsity strength with last year's Junior High squad. Two sophomores, Lois LaPoint and Don Kovacevich, broke into the starting lineup and topped the tennis ladder to play girls' and boys' singles.

Last year the team took second place in the league race.

After watching an exciting match Joyce Montgomery and Donna Laush congratulated Dona Robison for winning.

Don Kovacevich, Duane Baker and Dewey Boushey rested between sets of their match with Highline.

The following also turned out for tennis: First Row: M. Gard, M. Lokovsek, J. Sander, M. Tougaw, M. Beech, B. Downey, D. Lundstrom, W. Holm, F. Zimmer and T. Collins.

Seniors Made '51 Most Eventful of High School Years

The Senior Class Officers from Enumclaw, Gary Sambila, Vice-Pres., Phyllis Parsons, Sec., Gene Baline, Pres., were discussing the ordering of caps and gowns for the seniors.

Enjoying the sun were Buckley's Senior Class Officers, Mike Hander, Darlene Shane, Coleen McCracken, and Don Romberg.

Looking back on years gone by, the Class of "51" has had three successful years in high school.

Jack Boere, class president led their eventful Sophomore year, assisted by Jack Henry, vice president; Fred West, secretary and Val Krainick, treasurer. "The Little Red School House", sophomore class assembly, portraying White River teachers in their school days, made a big hit with the judges and won the cup as the best class assembly in "49". Another outstanding production for the Class of "51" was the annual sophomore dance, "Hades Hop".

Leading the Class of "51" through their Junior year as class officers were: Gary Sambila, president; Jack Henry, vice president; Connie Colvin, secretary and Jerry Geertsens, treasurer. "Up In Central Park", the Junior Prom in "50" showed the class' ability to put on an inexpensive, but outstanding dance. For the class assembly, the Juniors took "A Walk Down Old Broadway", looking into various New York shows.

In their last year at White River High School, the Seniors made it an eventful one. The highlight of the senior social season was the annual Senior Ball which was, "Silver Dreamland". A shimmering fountain of silver provided the centerpiece for the room decorated in pale blue and white. Co-chairmen of the dance were Alice Ghiglione and Marilyn Holmes. An unusually large amount of Senior thespians turned out for the Senior Play; among these a select few were chosen to take part in the senior production, "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay". "Family Album", the senior assembly, brought forth many laughs and much applause by an appreciative audience.

The Class of "51" supplied a large amount of the "brawn and brains" for the football team which took the Puget Sound League Championship in 1951. Outstanding players were: Fred West, Gary Sambila, Dick McGee, Gene Balint, Jack Henry, Richard York, Bill Mueller, and Jim Symonds. Of these Hornet gridders, Fred West and Gary Sambila were named on the All-State team and also the All-Conference team. Jack Henry, and Richard York were also named on the All-Conference team. Dick McGee was placed on the second team of the All-Conference, while still others received honorable mention.

As the classroom doors close on the Class of "51", the seniors bid farewell to friends and faculty. They will cherish the memories they have of their high school days at Enumclaw. Underclassmen, faculty and administration will long remember them for the spirit contributed by their class and the high standards, which they have set for future students of White River High.

The end of another school year and another class leaves the happy hallways of Buckley High School. Looking back through the years, the class of '51 has been active in many fields throughout school life.

The first big undertaking as a class was the Sophomore Hop, "Winter Wonderland", which surprised everyone by having real snow. At football games people began to take notice of our future stars Bob Cummings, Don Romberg and Arnie Olsson. Arnie also represented our class in basketball, as did Allan Madden, Don and Jim French, and Chuck Koch in baseball. The Sophs began high school with 18 members in Honor Society. Before becoming full-fledged members, this group went through a stiff initiation.

As Juniors, with Inez Thieman as president, our interests widened into more varied fields. Many girls turned out for G. A. A. and won their second letter in girl's athletics. The boys, too, kept up the pace with Arnie Olsson placing first team positions in football and basketball. Don Romberg continued to show great promise in football, too. For the Junior Prom a unique theme, "The Storybook Ball", was chosen. As a Junior, Richard Ranch was president of F. F. A. Joyce Hamilton was chairman of the Junior St. Patrick's Day Assembly. Connie Stanton, was elected yell leader again, this time for White River High. A Junior trio composed of Pat McCasland, Colleen McCracken, and Doreen Tembey became known around Buckley for their singing talent.

Senior president, Mike Hander, led the class through the most active year of all. In October the Seniors gave a talent show with Bill Secor playing Arthur Godfrey.

In sports the Seniors did especially well. Don Romberg and Arnie Olsson represented Buckley on the championship White River Football Team. In intramural basketball the Seniors were school champions. Not to be outdone by the boys, the Senior Girl's G. A. A. team, the Amazons, were champions in both the volleyball and the basketball tournaments.

Miss Alford, the class advisor, assisted with many helpful ideas for the Senior Ball, "Paris In Spring". The gym was decorated with fresh blossoms. One side of the dance floor was like a Parisian Street, showing all the shop windows. The refreshment stand resembled a sidewalk cafe and at the end of a bridle path was the guest book.

The last months of school seemed to fly by—filled with the Mother-Daughter Banquet, Commencement Speakers, Senior Picnic—and breakfast. Then at long last—graduation—a beautiful ending to four wonderful years.

Editors, Faculty, Staff, and Students Worked Together Portraying Life at WRHS...1951

As the doors close on the final day of school, so the doors close on another school year and on many memories and adventures—the annual staff hopes the 1951 T'Kopechuck has captured a few of them for you. The staff extends its sincere thanks and appreciation to the many who have helped us in producing this yearbook.

Special thanks goes to the businessmen who have supported us with their advertising.

An extra word of appreciation is extended to Mr. Shaw of Farwest Lithograph and Printing for his untiring efforts in helping us, to Mr. Fred Bannister who has spent many hours taking photographs for this yearbook, to Mr. Henry Hergert of the Courier-Herald for his splendid cooperation in setting type, to the teachers and office personnel for their helpful assistance, and to the students who were willing to give up their time to have pictures taken.

In passing, we'd like to express thanks to Mr. Rex Waldron and Mr. Dennis Bernard who have put up with our whims and fantasies and have been our friends, giving advice, praise, and reproach whenever needed.

Again, to "All" from the staff—thanks!

 Here's hoping you as a great successful student body president next your horn and don't flit with the many of the girls & break their hearts!

 I have been grand knowing you and I'll always remember the good moments and other things because of you. Good luck again,
 Love as always,
 Jolette

Hi Synn,
I sure hope we're in another year together next year. Just you have to recuperate from all the broken knees and stuff.
When you had to fall. Remember?
(how could you forget?) Bello gonna ring as best. What of luck
Janet

D.S. I forgot to wish you luck as S.B.P. President (you won't need it though)

Best of Luck in everything you undertake.
Have fun this summer
and then come back and study hard so you can be Valedictorian. You most probably will be. Good luck as S.B.P.
